

Chad Eudy

Frontline Leadership Speaker · VP, Leadership Development, FHI

About Chad

Chad Eudy brings a perspective that fits supply chain, warehouse, distribution, logistics, and manufacturing audiences because his leadership story started on the floor. He has spent more than 31 years with FHI, rising from a frontline handler into senior leadership roles across HR and leadership development. Today he leads Leadership Laces, FHI's leadership development practice. Chad is a Certified John Maxwell Coach and a U.S. Navy veteran of Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

Best Fit Audiences

- Supply chain and logistics conferences
- Warehouse, distribution, and 3PL events
- Manufacturing and operations summits
- HR, workforce, and talent conferences
- Continuous improvement and Lean events
- Industry associations and chambers

Signature Topics

- Frontline Leadership That Moves the Floor
- Building Supervisors Who Build People
- Retention Starts With Leadership
- Culture, Accountability, and Operating Results
- From Handler to Leader: Lessons From 31 Years on the Floor

Session Formats

- 45-minute breakout
- 60-minute breakout with Q&A
- Keynote-style breakout
- Interactive workshop

Book Chad

Will See!

VP of Business Development & Industry Affairs, FHI will@fhiworks.com · fhiworks.com